ARGENTINE AGRICULTURE.

In the absence of official statistics, it is, indeed, an arduous task to draw up any calculations as to the area of land under cereals in this republic and the possible or probable results of the harvest. It is high time that the National Department of Lands and Colonies should stir in the matter and give the public some evidence not only of its existence but of its utility. Up to the present the Department has kept away from the public gaze: what it does nobody knows; and since it is in existence it should confirm the fact by some statistics on the status of agriculture in the country. The agricultural products of the republic are becoming every year more important; very soon the export of cereals will quite eclipse that of pastoral products; and it may be timely to remind the Agricultural and Land Department of a fact that it appears to ignore.

Mr. Alois E. Fliess, a recognized authority in all agricultural matters, has come to the front to fill the void and inform the public of his calculations in such vital matters, and we have much pleasure in giving some of his figures for 1889-90; but our readers must make full allowance for the amount of guess-work that such calculations must necessarily entail in the absence of official data. The figures, in the comparison for 1884 are our own, which we can vouch for, and the comparison is not unfavourable to Mr Fliess's calculations, which, if anything, may be under mark. Beginning with the area of land under cereals in the Republic, we see:

	hectares	hectares
Wheat.....	686,000	1,035,000
Maize	330,000	850,000
Flax.....	79,200	140,000

If we consider the enormous spurt that agriculture has made in the last five years, we should be inclined to believe that Mr. Fliess's figures for 1889 are very much beneath the mark; so much the better, as the public has been surfeited with the gross exaggerations of previous years, when the most absurd calculations were current and deceived the home and foreign markets. It must be remembered that the country has received since 1884 more than three hundred thousand immigrants, and the great numbers of these new arrivals have swelled the ranks of colonists and enormously enhanced the value and quantity of cereal production in the republic. At the same time, our cereal production must to-day provide for the consumption of at least half a million more people than in 1884, and in a calculation of the probable export of wheat from the country, this fact may often be forgotten.

Mr. Fliess calls attention to the splendid quality of the wheat crop this season. The wheat is so fine that it can compare with the very best North American classes. Argentine wheat for years past has been selling at 0½ to 2 francs less than the superior Russian and American qualities; this season, however, Argentine classes will be quoted on a par with the best. The Argentine production of 1889-90 is calculated by Mr. Fliess as follows:—

	Tons.
Wheat.....	1,035,000
Maize.....	1,850,000
Flax.....	140,000

Calculating a population of 3,300,000 souls in the country, the following proportion is drawn of the quantities needed for consumption and the balance left for exports:—

	Consumption, Tons	Surplus. Tons
Wheat...	540,000	595,000
Maize...	500,000	1,350,000
Flaz.....	40,000	100,000
	1,080,000	2,045,000

Thus there will be at least two million tons of grain that must be exported, a calculation that will gladden the hearts of shippers, for at least fifteen hundred steamers will be needed to carry that great bulk of grain. As we have stated before, we believe that these figures are much under the mark.

The value of the agricultural production of the country, embracing all cereals, wine, sugar, tobacco, etc., is calculated as follows:—

	Value. Dollars gold
Wheat, Maize, Flax	63,280,000
Alfalfa	20,060,000
Sugar	5,500,000
Wine	1,000,000
Tobacco	1,000,000
Various	6,115,009
	96,955,000

Mr. Fliess makes his calculation 100,255,000 dollars gold, but he made the mistake of adding to the above 3,300,000, the calculated population of the republic. Here we beg to think that the population of the country exceeds four millions, but this is a mere question of detail.

It is interesting to compare this total value of the agricultural production of the republic with that of other countries; the figures for the latter are for 1882 or thereabouts:—

United Kingdom ...	266,000,000
France	441,000,000
Germany.....	456,000,000
Russia	509,000,000
Austria.....	322,000,000
Italy	178,000,000
Spain	136,000,000
United States	604,000,000
Canada	58,000,000
Australia	76,000,000
Argentine Republic	19,390,000

The Argentine Republic is still very low in the scale in the above comparative table, but we close this chapter in the conviction that if the agricultural figures of Argentina were multiplied by two, they would still be under the mark. The average consumption of grain in the world per inhabitant is known to be 405 lbs. Calculating at a minimum the population of this republic at 4,000,000 souls, we see that the consumption of grain per annum must be 800,000 tons, nearly the total Argentine wheat production calculated by Mr. Fliess for this season.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent)

December 31st.

The compliments of the season to all the subscribers of THE STANDARD and the readers of "W. P."

The system of colonization of the old Spaniards in this part of the world, now known as the Argentine Republic, is something of an enigma. Why they should have scorned the fertile litoral, the open pampas and rich soil of the margins of our great rivers, and betaken themselves to Cordoba, Rioja, Catamarca, Tucuman and Salta seems a strange aberration to people of the present day. When we think that Asuncion in Parsguay, Cordoba, and even the towns of Catamarca and Salta had acquired a certain importance when Buenos Ayres was only an insignificant fort, menaced continually by the numerous tribes of Pampa Indians, we are not apt to accredit to the Spaniards the faculty of seeing much beyond their nose in the matter of colonization.

Now that I think of it, however, might it not have been that it was the terror of the Indians on the litoral that induced the patriarchal old families and their attendants and dependents and adherents to prefer the northern part of the country, where if the soil was not so prolific, the droughts a common calamity, the rivers being dried up in summer, on the other hand, the aborigines were more pacific, and, far from possessing the ferocity of the southern tribes, they lent themselves willingly to a species of servitude, such as we may imagine existed on the estancies of Father Abraham.

The best proof of the great mistake the Spaniards made is the experience of the last hundred years, in which period the litoral has become the real Argentine nation, while all the interior remains stationary with the self-same civilization of the sixteenth century; and had it not been for the railways, would have remained stationary, from preference, till to-day—the Santagueño preferring his "patay" to the "bife a caballo", and the Cordobes his maize "locro" to "Paté de foie gras".

But there is something else to be said in disculpation of the horror of the old Spaniards to the Pampa Central. Coming from Old Castille or the Andalusian provinces, where the glowing beauties of an exuberant and varied vegetation are everywhere presented to the view, the sight of the monotonous and treeless pampa must have caused a profound sentiment of disappointment and "tristeza." In the sunny north there were smiling valleys, a brilliant vegetation, a land where the orange and lemon grow; and if there were scanty pastures for cattle, and no soil for wheat, nature and irrigation enabled the inhabitants, with the aid of a few slaves, to pass a "dolce far niente" existence that just suited their indolent and unambitious character; but it may be added, in parenthesis, made them easy victims at times to unruly "caudillos" and ignorant despots like Quiroga and Ibarra, for instance.

That there are little spots of Eden in the northern provinces no one can doubt; and I have just become acquainted with one which I shall briefly describe. In the southern part of the province of Salta there is a zone of say a hundred square miles, where the vegetation and climate are exceptionally lovely, there are forests of wonderful quebrachos, and Cebilo. I have not been able to find out the English name for the latter, but Latzina gives the Latin name, "Piptadenia Cebil." The bark of this tree contains 10 o/o tannin. In the opens the green grass grows luxuriantly, a species of timothy grass. This region is called the "Cebilar, on account of the abundance of these trees. Surrounding the habitations of the peasants are groves of oranges and lemons, walnuts, figs, and opuntias, and always a little field of sugar cane. The houses are simply ranchos; the food of the people is maize, sugar cane, oranges and pumpkins. But the most curious part of this region is that planting and harvesting goes on simultaneously all the year round, such is the equability of the temperature and the climate.

Most of us have read D. Eduardo Gutierrez's semi-romance of "Juan Moreira" in which the "Justicia" of the camp of the province of Buenos Aires is so admirably depicted, as well as the character of the "paisano". If Juan Moreiras and Juan Cuellos have disappeared, or are much modified by wire fences and the advent of foreigners, I am afraid that even at the present time, the camp "Justicia" and the gauchos have not much changed, if we are to believe the newspapers. We may remember that Juan Moreira at first was a peaceful citizen, and the arbitrary conduct of a Juez de Paz, or a Comisario, induced him to commit his first crime. This is the history of many an Argentine criminal. The Latin race is the same all over the world. The man in authority must be a tyrant in one way or another. How else can he display his superiority and the power entrusted in his hands? The most arbitrary authorities are certainly the Spaniards and their descendants. Put a sword or any badge of office, or any dignity on a Spaniard, or any South American, and he immediately considers himself as superior to the law.

The "Justicia" as it was commonly called was collectively the 'Juez de Paz' the 'Comisario', the 'Sergeant' and 'cabo' and a certain number of soldiers. They were and are still, in too many places, the terror of the peaceful inhabitants and the scorn of the 'gaucho malo', who generally escaped their pursuit, or if taken it is to have a good time of it in the j i w t i his captors.

Well, just the kind of 'Justicia' mentioned in 'Juan Moreira', is now the regime in Rosario. It seems an anomaly, but it is a serious fact. A despotic Jefe Politico has surrounded himself with a most lamentable set, who are all at his beck and nod. Not a day passes but we, hear of some new outrage by the police, and shielded by the Gefe. Already there have been several 'reclamos' by consuls and even by Ministers, for the men of the 'machete' are quite impartial, and go for a foreigner with even more "gusto" than for a native.

We have in Rosario one central police station and thirteen Comisarias, and four Juzgados de Paz, and the contemporary history of these centres of law and order is of such a nature that it has given rise to my present dissertation, and a vivid recollection of the "justicia," as painted by the clever author of "Juan Moreira."

To prove the perfect inutility of the National Government depending on provincial governments to furnish reliable statistics of agriculture, or, in fact, on any other subject, we have the answers sent to the Minister of the Interior by the governors of Santa Fe and Entre Rios. Dr. Galvez gives the probable production of his province at twenty millions of fanegas or one hundred and twenty-five millions of bushels of cereals, and his confrère on the other side of the Parana, not to be behind-hand, tells the Home Minister that his province will produce eighteen millions of fanegas, almost as much as Santa Fe! Neither of them made the simple calculation that this quantity represented, at low prices, upwards of two hundred millions of dollars.

The figures of the Home Minister, as published in the STANDARD of the 28th, I reproduce:

	Dollars
Province of Buenos Aires	85,000,000
" Santa Fe.....	30,000,000
" Entre Rios	20,000,000
" Cordoba.....	12,000,000

I am not in a position to judge of the correctness of the figures for Buenos Aires, but hold them to be much exaggerated. Those of Entre Rios and Cordoba are decidedly so. But as you judiciously observe, the Minister takes no note of the cereals of the rest of the Republic, alfalfa and many other agricultural products that will help to make up the grand total of what promises to be a golden year for Argentina.

Railway Items.

Dr. Araoz has received from Mr. Ramon Ferreyra of Tucuman a letter c[illegible]ing of the traffic arran[illegible] Madrid Station. It appear[illegible] master there refuses to r[illegible] less on the special con[illegible] that the company shall not be responsible for the goods. In this way, the sugar-growers, who send large quantities of sugar by the railway, are at the mercy of the company. But this is not all. It would appear that the station-master obliges consigners to send their own men to load the goods. It is probable Dr. Araoz will adopt stringent measures to cut short these abuses. It would be well, however, to institute an inquiry into the circumstances of the case.

The traffic-returns of the Southern Railway last November were:

Gross Returns
Passengers.....	$161,497.45
Goods.....	432,349.85
Parcels & Luggage.....	29,895.30
Telegraph.....	3,180.73
Sundries	6,577.35
	$633,500.68
Loss in exchange.....	41,016.63
	$592,484.05
Working expenses:
Permanent way.....	$52,285.19
Locomotives.....	129,406.02
Carriages and wagons.....	18,952.73
Traffic	79,408.64
Management	52,275.85
Telegraph.....	3,524.62
	$305,803.05
Net earnings.....	$286,681

The kilometrage of the line during the same month was 8,294,070. These figures shew the immense traffic of the Southern Railway.

The kilometrage of the Argentine Great Western in October was 1,746,856.

Telegrams received from Salta yesterday give a detailed account of the festivities on the occasion of the arrival of the first locomotive. The train entered the town on Thursday, and the Plaza and houses were decorated with great taste. Then the Inauguration Committee got into the train and visited the Mojoroto Tunnel, while the whole town vociferously cheered Engineer Bovio, the most popular man to day in Salta. On the return of the Committee, a banquet was given and Dr. Ruiz de los Llanos, in behalf of Messrs. Lucas de Gonzalez and Co. made a splendid speech. Engineer Bovio, who directed the works, replied. Congratulatory telegrams were subsequently sent to the President of the Republic and Dr. Araoz, chairman of the National Railway Board.

A telegram received yesterday from Tucuman announced the opening to traffic of the Medina Branch of the Argentine North Western. This branch has all the importance of a main line, since it unites some of the wealthiest districts of the province with the city of Tucuman.

It is probable that the proposed railway from Lerma Valley in Salta to Cabra-Corral and Bolivia, will run through the Toro Quebrada, tapping the trade of Rosario de Lerma, which is an important department having 20,000 inhabitants. The present plans omit Rosario de Lerma, but pressure is being brought to bear on the company to alter the plans as above stated.

The Local Board of the East Argentine Railway have written to the Minister, stating that in regard to the decree suspending the guarantee on the line, they had been led to understand that the principal cause of so severe a measure was that they had opposed all inquiry into the charges brought against the Railway. The Board maintain that, so far from having opposed, they have always facilitated any inquiry made by the Government Inspectors. The fact is, Mr. Silva was not allowed to prosecute inquiries, for the simple reason that he had presented himself as Interventor, with all manner of authority, according to his own statement. The attitude of the Board seems very just, and we have no doubt that the difficulties of the situation will be easily remedied.

Mr. J. A. Thorne has been appointed accountant to the National Railway Board, and Mr. J. B. Randle, railway-inspector.

Messrs. John G. Meiggs, Son and Co's' application for extension of time to begin the works of the 9 de Julio-San Rafael railway, has been laid before Dr. Araoz, who will report next week.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The great news of the day yesterday was of a most agreeable kind, viz, that the Argentine and Brazilian republics have once and for ever settled the Misiones question, without having recourse to arbitration or any more "tramites". This is a supremely wise step on the part of the new republic, and will create an impression in its favour in Europe.

We have to thank Messrs Negbaur and Co. for sending us late papers from home. Stanley fills the illustrated papers. Tippoo Tib is a horrid-looking villain.

This is the first Sunday for months and months that there has been no racing; so, how our turfite subscribers will manage to get through the day we are unable to say. Perhaps a visit to the Fronton Nacional would fill the aching void.

To-morrow will be a holiday, so we must say "au revoir" to our readers till Wednesday morning next. The afternoon outward trains yesterday were full of flitters to the camp for the holidays.

The Zoophiles have been unable to stop the pigeon butchery at Mar del Plata, which opens to-day. If the ladies at the Argentine Brighton set their faces against the cruel pastime, it won't last very long.

The Swimming Tournament at Cabanette's Baths to-day will attract a crowd. The eight events include a Tub Race and a Duck Race: both sure to keep the table in a roar.

We beg to call the attention of the chief of the department of the Galveston service in the Post Office to the abuses going on in that office at present, of which, we feel quite confident he knows nothing. An Englishman wished to dispatch a telegram to Europe the day before yesterday, and when about to pay was asked a hundred and forty per cent. premium. He went immediately and bought the necessary gold and after paying for his gold had a surplus in his favor of two dollars gold. The clerk said he had no gold and could only pay him his change at the rate of two hundred per cent. This is compound interest with a vengeance. There must be something wrong in the office.

In reference to the Brazilian Revolution the Man of the World says:—"Revolutions, like earthquakes, are accounted "no great shakes" in South America, and the deposition of the Emperor of Bra[illegible] to have been very quietly effect[illegible] London the news created a feeling of surprise, and a rise in the price of coffee, and that is all. The curious thing about this revolution is that it was directed against the Crown as an institution rather than against Dom Pedro himself, [illegible] personally very popular with [illegible] subjects! The Brazilian always was a hard nut to crack."

We warmly salute our new colleague The Gleaner, the organ of the Young Men's Christian Association, and wish it a Happy New Year and many such.

We are requested to say that refreshments will be provided at the Hurlingham Cricket Match to-morrow for the ladies who honour the game with their presence

Here is a Fashion paragraph for our lady readers; it is fresh from that home of Fashion, Paris:—"Velvet bonnets will be the favourites during the winter, with narrow velvet strings. Sometimes the bonnet will match the costume, and the strings will be of a contrasting colour. The brims are mostly raised in front, whilst some are pointed. Jet is a favourite trimming combined with feathers and wings, Roseda and jet is fashionable, also apricot and black."

A correspondent, who signs himself "Bon Vivant", asks us which is considered the best brand of whiskey sent out here from the United Kingdom? If the cafes and restaurants be any guide in the matter, we are informed that the Buchanan Blende is what is most frequently called for, and the agent is barely able to keep pace with the demand.

The news from the camp yesterday was as meagre as could be; but no news is often good news. The rain was more general than any for some time, but is not reported to have done any damage to speak of, and it did the maize a world of good.

Advices from Salta report a great day there on Thursday last when the first railway train entered the city. Cheering, lunching and dancing were the order of the day, and Government decreed a three days' holiday. This eclipses the fandango in Catamarca when the Free Bank Loan was launched.

The observatory at Pekin is the oldest in the world, having been founded in 1279 by Kubla Khan, the first Emperor of the Mogul dynasty. There are still in it three of the first instruments of observation. These were used for the observation of Halley's comet in 1738, and may also be used when, 22 years hence, this comet again appears. The oldest observatory in Europe is that founded by King Frederick III. of Denmark, on the island of Hveen, in the Sound, and where the famous astronomer Tycho Brahe carried out his celebrated observations—among others that of the "bright" star in Cassiopeia. The Paris observatory was established in 1671, and that of Greenwich three years later.

A Sharp Retort.—"Did you know," said a Gentile to a Jew, "that they hang Jews and jackasses together in Portland?" "Indeed," said Solomon, "den it ish vell dot you and I ish not dere."

The troops have all returned to barracks from Palermo, owing to the wet weather. Had it remained fine they would have had some few days more of open-air life.

Dr. Arata, the City Analyst, has warned the Government that the kerosene now being imported is frightful stuff of the most dangerous kind. Unfortunately, this is no new story.

We understand that the Very Reverend Father Fidelis, Provincial of the Passionist Order in South America, is expected here in a few days, accompanied by the Rev. Father Edmund Hill. They come from North America, where Father Fidelis was one of the orators at the great Catholic Congress in Baltimore.

The Chilian ironclad 'Admiral Cochrane' is expected here to day or to morrow from Montevideo. No doubt her officers will have a high old time of it, in return for the lavish hospitality shown to the officers of the Argentina last year.

"Dear STANDARD:

"To the banks mentioned by you as having allowed their employes a month's salary as a Xmas gift may be added Messrs Thomas Drysdale and Co. and Messrs John and Joseph Drysdale and Co., who have displayed the same laudable generosity. Yours truly,

N. Y. G.

A farmer at Chivilcoy has named one of his pigs Maud, because she comes into the garden so often.

A good hotel-keeper is a man that one can always put up with.

Tucuman, the Garden of the Republic, values its sugar and spirits out-put last year at no less than 12 millions of dollars. If so, it is by no sound means to be explained why the province is so monstrously hard up as represented, and always crying out for more currency.

Coppers are getting scarcer than ever. The look of beaming gratitude which tram guards now bestow on those who pay their fare in coppers is quite touching to behold. The poor fellows spend most of each trip in rushing in and out of "almacenes" in the vain search for coppers. The beggars have lots of coppers, but ask a tremendous premium on them, almost as high as that on gold.

Pereyra, the jockey, is not by any means in the orthodox New Year's frame of mind. The reason why is that a lady friend of his, named Robustiana, disappeared the other day with a rather robust sum of cash belonging to him, $1500, which he had earned and saved by dint of whip and spur. The police caught the fair runaway at Quilmes; but she had spent part of the money.

Palermo Park after ten o'clock at night now is no better than it ought to be. All the "fast" and "loose" life of the metropolis is to be seen there every night, driving and walking about, and some very unedifying scenes are the result. This nuisance began with the gold premium and has got worse every year since. The police should put it down.

The police at Monte have arrested a customer who has swindled several people there by dressing as a Franciscan friar and collecting subscriptions as if for the Order. His "modus operandi" was to collect at the different estancias and "puestos" dressed as a friar; but when about to enter a town he changed his garb and got up as a swell of the first water. When he had spent all the money in riotous living he again started for the open camp to resume his religious disguise and his collections. The police suspect that he is a man they have been looking for since 1884, for having done a little murder in that year.

We saw yesterday a costly gold card presented to the famous violinist Mr. Thadeu Schultz, by the "Stella d' Italia" Society as a "Diploma de Honor" for his great talents displayed at a concert given by the Society on the 31st ult. in the Operari Italiani saloons. It is a splendid gift, but well deserved.

Surgeon-Major Miatre has returned from Europe and is again at his old post in the naval division. He goes back to his old love, the Villarino, with whose nautical record he is quite as identified as Colonel Spurr or Major Simonnet.

We welcome back to the Plate, Mr. E. Rodriguez, who left these shores blind and now returns with his eyesight completely restored, after a double operation on each eye-ball. The operation has caused a sensation in scientific Europe and has added much to the great repute of the operator, Dr. E. Terrini, of Florence. A pamphlet has been publisbed on the operation, and we have been favored with a copy which we place at the disposal of medical friends.

There was sighing and weeping in musical circles yesterday when it was known that Gayarre, the King of Tenors, had succumbed to the King of Terrors, in the shape of influenza. The lyric stage has suffered a loss it will be hard indeed to repair. The great singer was held in the very highest esteem in private life, being literally full of noble qualities.

We have received a letter from Liverpool begging us to make enquiries about Mary Anne McClusky, of Ballinasloe, who came out here last January in the steamer Dresden, with some relatives named Flanagan. Her mother is very anxious about her, as none of the party have written home since they left Ireland.

We have received a copy of the new comic paper in London, Puck, to which "Our Own" there referred the other day. Its illustrations are coloured and admirably done. A curious feature is its warm advocacy of the truth of the science of Astrology: Lord Walseley's career is traced from his birth through the Zodiac in a most remarkable way: and the writer is ready to prove that the careers of Napoleon, Wellington, Moltke, Soult, Sir John Moore; Frederick the Great, Bernadotte, Collingwood and Nelson all lend support to Astrology. Puck for one penny is the cheapest thing we have seen yet.

There is a great difference in milkmaids. Milk made in the country is far better than milk made in town.

The bank-note muddle seems to be settling down at last. The Rentas Office issued a notification yesterday that all the old issue of the National Bank, with or without a stamp, is good legal tender and must be accepted in all public offices. It is to be hoped that no more will be heard of this bank-note nuisance.

Yellow-fever is reported to have completely dissappeared from Matto Grosso. This is most grateful news. The Plate is getting on very nicely this summer as regards health, so far; and can congratulate itself on the absence of cases.

The new Mayor of Rosario has dismissed a lot of Municipal employes, and means to go in for economy on as large a scale as possible. Wise man. The fact is that Mayors and Lord Mayors may as well make a virtue of necessity, and Governments also; as circumstances will this year force economy on all, whether they like it or not.

Father—"You girls should fix your minds on something higher than dress." One of the Girls—"That is what we have, pa. We have got our minds fixed on a couple of lovely high hats down at Mrs. Feather's millinery rooms."

The annual St. Cloud Fête of the French community opens on the 12th in the French Hospital at Almagro. It is always a very gay affair. Gentlemen attending it should put lots of money in their pockets, as French girls have some peculiar way of making cash change hand for charity faster than their sisters of any other nationality.

The floods in so many parts of the city on Friday during the rain have set the public tongue wagging again in a fashion the reverse of complimentary to the City Engineers. Wherever new "levelling" has been done the floods are worst.

The New Year's ball given by the Social Guild of Rosario was a great success: some specially pretty girls were present.

An old house at the corner of Rivadavia and Montevideo came down by the run yesterday. There was nobody near at the moment, so the undertakers made nothing by the accident.

Respecting the cricket match on New Year's Day at Montevideo, we hear that H. M. S. Cleopatra won by 170 to 97 runs, a slashing victory indeed. Montevideo went in first, but the team was not in its best form and the wickets fell rapidly for indifferent scores. The home team furthermore had the disadvantage of fielding under a very hot sun, whilst the batting of the navy team was stronger than usual. For the home eleven, the best scores were made by Poole 25, and Stanham 23, W. Maitland Heriot came in also with a useful 15. Poole also did some capital bowling, as also Scoones, to whom three wickets fell for 13. For the visitors, good scores were made by Mr. Leonard 66, Lieutenant Tower 25, and Mr. Ellis 19. Good bowling was done by the Rev. Francis, Messrs. Chatfield, Tower and Leonard. There was a fair number of spectators present.

LA FIESTA DE ADROGUE

Tuesday evening, Dec. 31, 1889, "New Year's Eve", according to terms of contract with the "Sociedad Cooperativa Iluminacion Electrica de Almirante Brown" the Edison Electric Light Incandescent system for street and house lighting was successfully started. Sr. Don Esteban Adrogue, the founder and "Intendente" of the beautiful and flourishing suburb of Buenos Ayres, turned the valve of the steam-engine, and, magic-like, the town and its Municipal building were brilliantly and instantly illuminated. At each end of the beautiful hall were placed two striking and faithful photographs of Thomas Alva Edison, framed in Electric Incandescent Lights, colors red, white and blue, and Intendente Sr. Don Esteban Adrogue, blue and white, gracefully and beautifully decorated with floral wreaths. The musical part of the programme was entrusted to the talented and able 'maestro' Sr. Don Conrado Herzfeld, and the result of his efforts was applauded to the echo, and was the culmination of the evening's entertainment.

A galaxy of beauty and refinement added additional lustre to the occasion, and the families of Ardua, Demaris, Olazabal, Smith, Arauz, Peirullo, Adrogue, Costa, Martinez, Diaz, Drabble, Orando, Sanchez, Gimenez, Zapiola, Ochoa, Patino, Gonzalez, Pellegrini, Melendez, Bustio, Payro, Trabuccos, Marti, Amenedo, Latorre, Rodriguez, Macias, Perez, Bunge, Corrales, Deagustini, Jacquemon, Rezabel, Bonzas, Miro, Brian, Pinero, Miles, Zemborain, Pena, Del Valle, Boisot, Mariu, Avellaneda, Carranza, Budia, Constanzo, Trapaga, Bradley, Torres, Gallegos, Zubiaurre, Aguilar, Ramirez, Fontana, Saenz, Garcia, Rojas, Herzfeld, Videla, Iglesias, Hidalgo, etc.

Doctor Demaria, on behalf of the Directory of the Company, in appreciation of the efforts of Mr. C. V. Boisot to make the installation the grand and beautiful success it was, in a few neat and appropriate words presented him with a fine album containing the autographs of a majority of the stockholders of the flourishing company; a gift more highly appreciated by this gentleman, could not have been thought of.

A special train conveyed the guests to and from the city; and the railroad station at Adrogue, through the enterprising spirit and liberality of Samuel Abbott, Manager of the Southern Railroad, was brilliantly lighted by electricity from the Adrogue Station.

The Finance Minister issued a decree to-day establishing rules as to Art. 4th of the Customs Laws in reference to the importation of draught horses.

Two hundred new certificates of the Banco de Italia were sold to-day at 90 m/n each, paper. It is rumoured that 1000 have been bought at 35 m/n gold each.

The failure of a well-known stationery firm was spoken of this afternoon.

Monday being a Church holiday, there will be no Bolsa before next Tuesday.

Several lots of National Bank Shares were sold between the two rings and not marked down.

Yesterday evening the bank managers in commission dined together at the Cafe de Paris. There was also a dinner party in the same Cafe given to the Hon. John Baring.

The highest price paid for wool this year in this market was this morning. Mr. Casey sold the wool from the Norton estancias, adjoining Curumalan, for $11.50 per 10 kilos; this tops the market. A lot of wool from Curumalan was also sold at $10.20. Mr. E. Kenny sold several special lots, amounting to 60,000 kilos, at reserved rates. Brokers report prices very firm and as high now as before the decline in December. The tendency is thus for a rise, and arrivals are small.

According to the Bolsa telegram the favorite Obras shares are down to 31⅛ which marks a very severe fall and shews that the money market in M.V. must be very tight indeed.

Advices from Rio announce exchange rate now quoted at 25½d., which is in advance, as last quotations were at 24⅞d.

In the exchange market there was little doing to day, as the business for the packet had closed. Some paper was reported passed at 48d., shewing a firmer tendency.

Last month's liquidation has not yet closed, and two brokers were spoken of to-day as being in default. The amounts are not to say very large.

The Riachuelo Works Committee have written to the Minister stating, that if the sanitary service of the Dique No. 1 is to be marked amongst the tasks of said committee, they will immediately prepare the estimates for the work.

The great news on change this evening was from Rio. The Misiones Question is at last definitely settled, and without arbitration.

On Tuesday the shareholders of the Banco de Italia having the right to subscribe to the new scrip can pay up the first call of ten per cent. The certificates will not be delivered by the bank until the 1st of February, when the old 'fuerte' shares will be exchanged for new shares in National dollars gold.

Money, at least paper, rules rather easier in the market; but only for first-class borrowers; 'cauciones on 2nd-class stocks almost impossible, and gold discounts ditto.

Business at the second hour was unimportant, only about half a million gold being sold. The rate opened at 231.80, advanced to 232.60, and closed at 232 50 for Tuesday, closing at 232.70 for the end of the fortnight, and 232 for the end of the month. Cedulas were in fair demand and maintained their rates, with the exception of P, which was a trifle weaker. Shares were weak all round. Constructors changed hands at 85½, Obligaciones at 6.80, Flores Constructors at 82 and the Puerto Madero 40 per cent. scrip at 21. Nothing else was done.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's CHLORODYNE.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1889. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
